Stacking passions builds layers that allow you to transfer knowledge across contexts.

A Mars rover is positioned on a rocky, reddish-brown landscape. The rover is on the right side of the frame, facing left. The background shows a hilly, desolate terrain under a hazy sky. A yellow grid is overlaid on the entire image. The text 'Curiosity kills perfectionism.' is centered in the middle of the image. 'Curiosity' is in white, and 'kills perfectionism.' is in yellow.

Curiosity kills perfectionism.

Perfectionism stops you from strarting things.
Perfectionism stops you from finishing things.
